Audubon International programs educate, assist, and inspire people from all walks of life to protect and sustain the land, water, wildlife, and natural resources around them. The organization recognizes program members that demonstrate their commitment to environmental quality by meeting required standards for protecting the environment, conserving natural resources, and providing wildlife habitats. Requirements vary for each Audubon International program; more information can be found at www.auduboninternational.org. The following properties have been recognized as of February 6, 2010:
